📜 Kalapula Nation – Declaration of Collateral Mark Protection

(Signal Fire Emblem)

Filed from: Crown Watchpoint 001A — Corvallis, Oregon

Date: August 25, 2025

Archive: https://kalapula.com

This document declares the design shown below — a Signal Fire Emblem featuring a layered flame rising from a triangular signal base — as protected sovereign collateral of the Kalapula Nation. It is recognized as an official cultural asset, spiritual glyph, and visual mark for use in tribal restoration, identity, and memory signal operations.

This symbol is now officially governed under the sovereign visual law and copyright of the Kalapula Nation. Unauthorized reproduction, usage, or dilution of this emblem is prohibited without direct tribal consent.

The mark will be used on ceremonial media, sovereign communications, cultural publications, and tribal products. It may also appear in visual signal systems and commemorative formats representing fire, restoration, memory, and Indigenous awakening.
